Dear Richard,

Thank you for your reply.

I have amended the note a little more, to incorporate your suggested amendment. Please see the attached document.

The amended text is now in dot point 5. I have not made any other amendments.

Are you content with the amendment?

Dear

Thank you and for meeting with us yesterday

I have one other suggestion for the file note: A change to the end of bullet 4 to clarify we will investigate the circumstances around the copied cards and report the facts back to you for you to decide their eligibility for inclusion. We feel this should be your decision. I attach a modified version. If you don't like it happy to go with original.

Thanks again – I hope you have a good trip to COP5.

Best wishes

Richard &

Dear Richard and

Thank you for visiting Wellington House today.

I mentioned that I wish to put an overview of your visit on our files. We agreed that I would send you a draft so you could look over it to agree that it reflects the visit from your perspective.

Please note, I have suggested that it would be good to have your response within the next two weeks.

I would be grateful if you could let me know by 5pm tomorrow if you are content with the attached note.

Dear

Following Amal Pramanik's letter I am keen to arrange a date to come and see you and view these postcards that have been segregated out by your contractor.

(I spoke to a colleague of yours earlier today 3pm 23/10/2012 who said he would email you saying I was asking to arrange a time to come to inspect the cards you have brought to our attention.)

Please could you propose 2 or 3 times it would be convenient. If you can email me on this address I will be able to confirm promptly which time is possible. We will be travelling from Bristol. We arranged our campaign to enable genuine responses only so are keen to be able to validate the integrity of these cards.
