Hi [REDACTED],

I'm actually no longer leading on this part of the office, but have copied in my colleague, [REDACTED] who has taken over and I've filled him in on our last meeting.

[REDACTED], as discussed grateful if you could see whether you can meet on Monday / provide other dates.

Kind regards,

Hi [REDACTED]

We met briefly at the meeting at DECC on 8th August. I have been asked if I could set up another meeting with you to review our unconventional gas proposals with our new Assistant Director, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] and I will be in London on Monday for meeting with an investor and if possible it would be great to follow on with a meeting with yourself whilst we are there. If this is not possible could you please suggest some dates when we might be able to meet?

Best regards
