Hi,

I am a small cider producer based in Sussex, and due to pubs (and even shops) being tied to a landlord and not being able to sell anything other than drinks they have brought from them I have found it very hard to get the the business to grow.

I like the idea of a guest Cider options (please don't just do guest beer). If you were allowed a couple of each it would stop the brewery's ripping the pubs off on the other drinks and may save the need for other regulation.

Regards,
Ben
