

Exercise

Individually:

1. Read the information about the family, the child's personal history and chronology.
2. Separate out fact, opinion and hypothesis from the given material.

In pairs:

3. Consider the importance of the historical information for current circumstances and explore possible interventions.