Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your email of 29th September 2013 which we received on 30th September. In this email you requested the following information:

- "1) Have any secretaries of state and ministers who have served in your department since May 2010 had an ISDN telephone line installed in their London or constituency home?*
- 2) What was the cost to the department for this installation and what is the line rental cost?*
- 3) How often has the the line used?"*

We have concluded our search for this information and can advise you that no such ISDN telephone lines have been installed since May 2010.

If you are dissatisfied with the treatment of your request, you can ask OAG to conduct an internal review of its decision. The internal review will be conducted by someone other than the person who took the initial decision. Requests for internal review should be addressed to the Information Officer, Office of the Solicitor to the Advocate General, Victoria Quay, Edinburgh, EH6 6QQ.

If you remain dissatisfied with how your request has been handled by OAG following its internal review, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office. Details of the complaints procedure can be found here - http://www.ico.gov.uk/complaints/freedom\_of\_information.aspx or by writing to Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely
