Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000

I refer to your e-mail of 6th May 2010 requesting information, which we have dealt with under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked for details of all PSV Operator Licence holders in the Yorkshire and Humberside area.

I am not able to identify exactly from our information which operators are based in this geographical area. However, I have attached a spreadsheet to the covering e-mail which gives all licence holders in the north east traffic area, which would include the area you are interested in.

I understand the Olympic Organising Committee contacted PSV operators some 18 months ago for expressions of interest in respect of the "Olympic Family" transport which encompasses competitors, and officials and separately to transport providers that may be required to assist with the transport of spectators. It may be an idea to contact them also on this matter.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact us, quoting reference F0002637.

If you are unhappy with the response provided, you may ask for an internal review. To request an internal review, please write to:

or email vosa.corporateoffice@vosa.gsi.gov.uk

giving the reasons for your dissatisfaction. It will help us if you quote the reference number for your case.

If you do not agree with the outcome of the internal review, you may lodge an appeal with the Information Commissioner (www.informationcommissioner.gov.uk). The Information Commissioner is an independent official appointed by the Crown to oversee the Data Protection Act 1998, the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

The Information Commissioner can consider complaints about any aspect of the way in which requests for information have been handled. Please note: the Information Commissioner would be unlikely to consider your complaint if you have not first requested an internal review.
