Dear [REDACTED]

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION: FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR FARMERS WHO WITHDRAW FROM THE PILOT BADGER CULLS

Thank you for your request for information about how much money farmers have been charged who withdraw from the pilot badger culls, which we received on 15th July. We have handled your request under the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIRs).

The EIRs apply to requests for environmental information, which is a broad category of information defined in regulation 2 of the EIRs. Public authorities are required to handle requests for environmental information under the EIRs. They give similar access rights to the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

I am writing to advise you that the information that you have requested is not held by Defra.

The information is therefore exempt under regulation 12(4)(a) of the EIRs, which relates to information which is not held at the time when an applicant's request is received. Regulation 12(4)(a) is a qualified exception, which usually means that a public authority is required to conduct a public interest test to determine whether or not information should be disclosed or withheld. However, the Information Commissioner, who is the independent regulator for requests made under the EIRs, takes the view that a public interest test in cases where the information is not held would serve no useful purpose. Therefore, in line with the Information Commissioner's view, Defra has not conducted a public interest test in this case.

I can confirm that to the best of our knowledge the information is not held by another public authority.

I attach an annex giving contact details should you be unhappy with the service you have received.

If you have any queries about this letter, please get in touch.
