1. 1. Where has EU action had a positive impact for the UK on research, technological development, innovation or space? What evidence is there for this? Has EU action encouraged national action in any areas?

Through the European Research Council grants and various FP7 grants. Institutions and individuals based in the UK have managed to acquire a disproportionate share of these grants. Statistics that show this can be obtained from the ERC and FP7 websites.

2. 2. Where has EU action had a negative impact for the UK in these fields? What evidence is there for this? Has EU action prevented potentially useful national action in any areas?

It hasn't had as far as I can see.

3. 3. How and where has UK engagement with partner countries or international bodies, both within and outside the EU, been helped or hindered by EU involvement?

DK

4. 4. What benefits or difficulties has the objective of a European research area (ERA) delivered for the UK?

DK

5. 5. How has the EU sought to coordinate the policy instruments at its disposal across different policy areas to create an enabling environment for researchers and innovators? How successful has this been?

DK

1. 6. What could the EU most helpfully do to promote scientific and technological progress and innovation (including in the space sector)? - How could the EU use its existing competence differently to deliver more in your area? - How might a greater or lesser degree of EU competence deliver more in your area? - How could improvements to existing EU activities make them more effective and efficient?

Use EU funding exclusively for research projects with an international comparative dimension.

2. 7. Where might future EU level action be detrimental to your work in this area?

No Response

3. 8. Where might action at national rather than EU level be more appropriate / effective?

No Response

4. 9. How could EU and national policies and funding streams interact better?

No Response

5. 10. What impact would any future enlargement of the EU have on this area of competence?

No Response

6. 11. Are there any other points you wish to make which are not captured above?
