Sentencing Statistics July to September 2009

Introduction

This publication has been prepared by Justice Statistics - Analytical Services (Sentencing Statistics and Offender Management Team) to provide the latest trends in sentencing in England and Wales, based on provisional sentencing data. Key statistics presented are set in the context of sentencing patterns over the last 2 years (since 2007). It considers the total numbers sentenced for indictable offences in all courts as well as a breakdown for magistrates' courts and the Crown Court. The focus is primarily on use of fines, community sentences, immediate custody, suspended sentences and average custodial sentence lengths (ACSL) (which exclude life and indeterminate sentences). Information by offence type and for individual sentences is provided in the accompanying tables, available for download here:

www.justice.gov.uk/publications/sentencingquarterly.htm

All figures relate to indictable only and triable-either-way offences (taken together these are known as indictable offences).

Statistics quoted in this publication for 2009 are provisional, until finalised data are published in the annual Sentencing Statistics publication. This provisional data may change in future quarterly briefs.

Where figures have been quoted in the text they have been rounded to the nearest 100. Where percentage changes are shown in the text or accompanying tables they are a comparison with the same quarter of the previous year.

Changes in this edition

Due to coding problems relating to the re-classification of cannabis estimates have been made of the volume of some sentences, please see the technical note towards the rear of the document for more details.

The introduction of the LIBRA case management system has affected the way that some cases are reported; see the data sources section at the end of the document for more details.

Key points: July to September 2009

All key points highlighted below are for indictable offences and are comparisons with the third quarter of 2008.

- The number of persons sentenced was almost unchanged at 78,500 (a fall of 0.4 per cent on the same quarter in 2008). The number of males sentenced fell by 1.1 per cent while for females it rose by 4.4 per cent. There was a 5.9 per cent increase in the number of people sentenced at the Crown Court and a 2.7 per cent decrease at magistrates' courts.
- The number of juveniles and young adults sentenced fell by 14.6 per cent and 4.2 per cent respectively. The number of adults sentenced increased by 3.2 per cent. This rise comprised a 2.8 per cent increase for males and a 6.2 per cent increase for females.
- The number of people sentenced to immediate custody fell by 3.5 per cent to 19,100 persons. This was made up of a 2.7 per cent increase at the Crown Court and a fall of 13.1 per cent at magistrates' courts. The number of juveniles sentenced to immediate custody fell by 16.0 per cent, for young adults it decreased by 10.6 per cent, and for adults there was a 1.4 per cent decrease.
- The percentage of persons sentenced to custody for indictable offences at all courts was 24.3 per cent, a fall of 0.8 percentage points on the same quarter in 2008.
- The number of community sentences fell by 3.2 per cent to 24,700. The community sentence rate fell 0.9 percentage points to 31.5 per cent.
- The offence group with the largest proportionate increase in numbers sentenced was violence against the person, with an increase of 5.7 per cent to 10,900. The largest proportionate fall was for criminal damage, which fell 18.0 per cent to 2,000. This is a continuation of the downward trend in terms of numbers sentenced for criminal damage; since the third quarter of 2007 there has been fall of 36.0 per cent.
- The average custodial sentence length (ACSL) rose by 1.2 per cent to 16.6 months. This comprised a 1.4 per cent fall at magistrates' courts to 2.6 months and a fall of 4.4 per cent at the Crown Court to 24.4 months. While it may seem unlikely for ACSL to have fallen at both magistrates' and the Crown Court yet have risen overall, the overall figure is a combination of not only the length of sentences from each court but also the proportion of persons receiving a custodial sentence from each type of court. So while ACSL has fallen at the Crown Court, where custodial sentences are from the Crown Court, where custodial sentences tend to be longer, the contribution from the Crown Court to the overall ACSL is greater and hence has caused the overall ACSL to rise.
- The ACSL rose for six of the ten indictable offence groups, the largest proportionate increase was for other indictable (excluding motoring) offences, up 11.8 per cent to 11.5 months the next highest proportionate increase was for criminal damage which rose 2.8 per cent to 16.5 months. The rise in ACSL for all other offence groups was less than 2.0 per cent. The largest decreases were for drug offences, down 5.6 per cent to 31.2 months, and fraud and forgery down 5.1 per cent to 10.1 months.

Magistrates' courts

- There were 56,300 persons sentenced at magistrates' courts, a fall of 2.7 per cent on the same quarter of 2008.
- The immediate custody rate fell 1.4 percentage points to 11.9 per cent.
- The suspended sentence rate rose 0.2 percentage points, to 5.0 per cent.
- The community sentence rate fell by 0.7 percentage points to 37.4 per cent.
- The fine rate fell 1.1 percentage points to 20.4 per cent.
- The average custodial sentence length fell from 2.7 months to 2.6 months.

Crown Court

- There were 22,200 persons sentenced at the Crown Court, an increase of 5.9 per cent on the same quarter in 2008.
- The immediate custody rate fell by 1.7 percentage points to 55.8 per cent.
- The suspended sentence rate rose 0.6 percentage points to 21.0 per cent.
- The community sentence rate was virtually unchanged at 16.4 per cent.
- The fine rate was unchanged at 1.6 per cent.
- The average custodial sentence length fell from 25.5 months to 24.4 months.

Table i: Persons sentenced by disposal

- (1) Excludes life sentences and IPPs.
- (2) The increase in otherwise dealt with disposals in this publication are due to unvalidated records being recorded as pre-sentence drug testing orders, these are preliminary disposals usually used prior to the imposition of a community sentence. It is highly likely the once the validation process has been completed these will be changed to community sentences

Explanatory notes

Data sources

The source of the data for this publication is the Courts Proceedings Database, which covers details of every individual sentenced. Data referring to magistrates' courts comes either directly from magistrates' court computer systems, all of which went online with the new LIBRA system during 2008 and 2009, or from police forces. National implementation of LIBRA was completed in February 2009. Data on the Crown Court comes from the Court Service's CREST computer system.

All the statistics shown relate to the principal offence. This is the one attracting the heaviest sentence. Where an offender has been given the same disposal for two or more offences the principal offence is the one for which the statutory maximum is most severe.

Although care is taken in processing and analysing the returns, the detail collected is subject to the inaccuracies inherent in any large scale recording system. Therefore, the figures are not necessarily accurate to the last digit shown.

Where the number of offenders sentenced in a particular group is less than 50, we do not show the percentage change. This is because smaller numbers do not always give a meaningful percentage change. In these cases, the percentage change is denoted with a star (*).

Percentage changes have been calculated from figures with a greater level of accuracy than those displayed in cells. Displayed values are shown to one decimal place while the underlying data is available to several decimal places. The underlying data is available by highlighting the relevant cells in the Excel version of the tables.

Following the introduction of the Libra case management system during 2008, offenders at magistrates' courts can now be recorded as sex 'Not Stated'. In 2008 and 2009 less than one per cent of offenders sentenced were recorded as sex 'Not Stated' as well as 'Male', 'Female', or 'Other'. Amendments to the data tables have been made to accommodate this new category. Tables split by gender are now formatted as males, females and then 'all persons' which includes the 'Not Stated' category. Detailed comparisons by gender are no longer possible and hence some figures/tables within the text which showed a gender breakdown in previous editions have been removed.

Technical note

As with the previous edition of this brief it has been necessary to impute a number of cannabis possession sentences. There has, however, been a refinement of the method used to estimate the number of 'missing' cases. Further investigation revealed that the problem only affected cases returned from the magistrates' courts. Therefore the imputation has been refined to only estimate magistrates' courts cases. The imputation for quarter one and two of 2009 have been recalculated on this basis. Further details of the method, reasoning and the predicted values is shown below.

The problem arose due to coding changes brought about by the reclassification of cannabis from class C to class B in January 2009. These cases are still outstanding although it is envisaged that they will be retrieved shortly and will be available for publication in the next edition.

As a temporary solution and to ensure sentencing statistics for this period could be released, data was obtained from the Police National Computer (PNC) and a model of the number of cannabis possession sentences was created to estimate the shortfall in the data. This model has subsequently been used to impute the 'missing' sentences. The details of the imputed values and the associated 95% prediction intervals are shown in table (i) below. The weighting that has been applied to the existing data results in non-integer values the values shown in the resultant tables are ultimately dependent on the point in the calculation that the figures are rounded, this may lead to minor differences in the values published in different tables. Full details of the method used are available on request.

Definitions

Juveniles: offenders aged 10-17 at sentence

Young adults: offenders aged 18-20 at sentence

Adults: offenders aged 21 or over at sentence

Average custodial sentence length (months): this excludes life and other indeterminate sentences.

Indictable only offences and triable-either-way offences are listed in Appendix 4 of Sentencing Statistics England and Wales 2008. This publication is available at www.justice.gov.uk/publications/sentencingannual.htm

Immediate custodial sentences include detention and training orders, young offender institution, unsuspended imprisonment, extended sentences for public protection and indeterminate sentences for public protection¹.

Community sentence – for adults (18 and over) the main community sentence, which is supervised by the Probation Service, is the community order introduced by the Criminal Justice Act 2003 for offences committed on or after 4 April 2005. The court must add at least one (but could potentially add all 12) of the following requirements: supervision, unpaid work, specified activities, prohibited activities, accredited programmes, curfew, exclusion, residence, mental health treatment, drug rehabilitation, alcohol treatment and attendance centre requirement for under 25s. For juveniles the main community sentences used are the referral order, for first-time offenders who plead guilty on their first court appearance and do not merit a discharge or custodial sentence, and the supervision order (up to 3 years, may have additional requirements) although curfew orders, reparation orders, action plan orders and attendance centre orders are also available. Youth Offending Teams supervise orders for juveniles.

Suspended Sentence – available for adults (18 and over) only. It is a sentence of custody of under 12 months, suspended for a period ranging from six months to two years. During the suspension period the court sets a number of requirements, from the same options as are available for the community order, and these are supervised by the Probation Service.

¹ Introduced by the Criminal Justice Act 2003 for offences committed on or after 4 April 2005

(1) 2009 data is provisional.
 (2) Referral orders now include numbers of extension of referral orders, and may therefore not be the same as previously published figures.
 (3) Community orders were introduced by the Criminal Justice Act 2003 for offences committed from 4 April 2005.
 (4) Fully suspended sentences for offences committed prior to 4 April 2005, suspended sentence order for offences committed from 4 April 2005.
 (5) Indeterminate and Extended sentences for Public Protection given to under 21's are included under 'Unsuspended Imprisonment'
 (6) The increase in otherwise dealt with disposals in this publication are due to unvalidated records being recorded as pre-sentence drug testing orders, these are preliminary disposals usually used prior to the imposition of a community sentence. It is highly likely the once the validation process has been completed these will be changed to community sentences (7) Percentage changes are based on a comarison with the same quarter of the year before * Number too small to give a meaningful percentage change
