

ATOMIC INDUSTRIAL FORUM

THE MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF THE ATOMIC INDUSTRIAL FORUM

MAY 1973 VOL. 20 NO. 5

dlq/08

MAY 5 1973

ONE OF THREE 30-kiloton explosives, 30 ft. long and 7 in. in diameter, used for simultaneous detonation in Rio Blanco gas stimulation experiment. Shot went off without a hitch, with almost no seismic effect and no radiation release. Story on p. 7.

Independent Safety Division Emerges from New AEC Reorganization

Rio Blanco Natural Gas Stimulation Shot Goes Off Without a Hitch

Derating Costs Estimated for Proposed ECCS Criteria Revisions

PUBLIC DOMAIN