

The Insolvency
Service

Debt Relief Orders

Debt relief orders are aimed at people who owe very little, have little or no income, and have no realistic prospect of ever being able to repay what they owe. They are a low cost alternative to bankruptcy people have received debt relief orders since they began in 2009

140,861

£230,890,787

debt discharged in 2013-2014

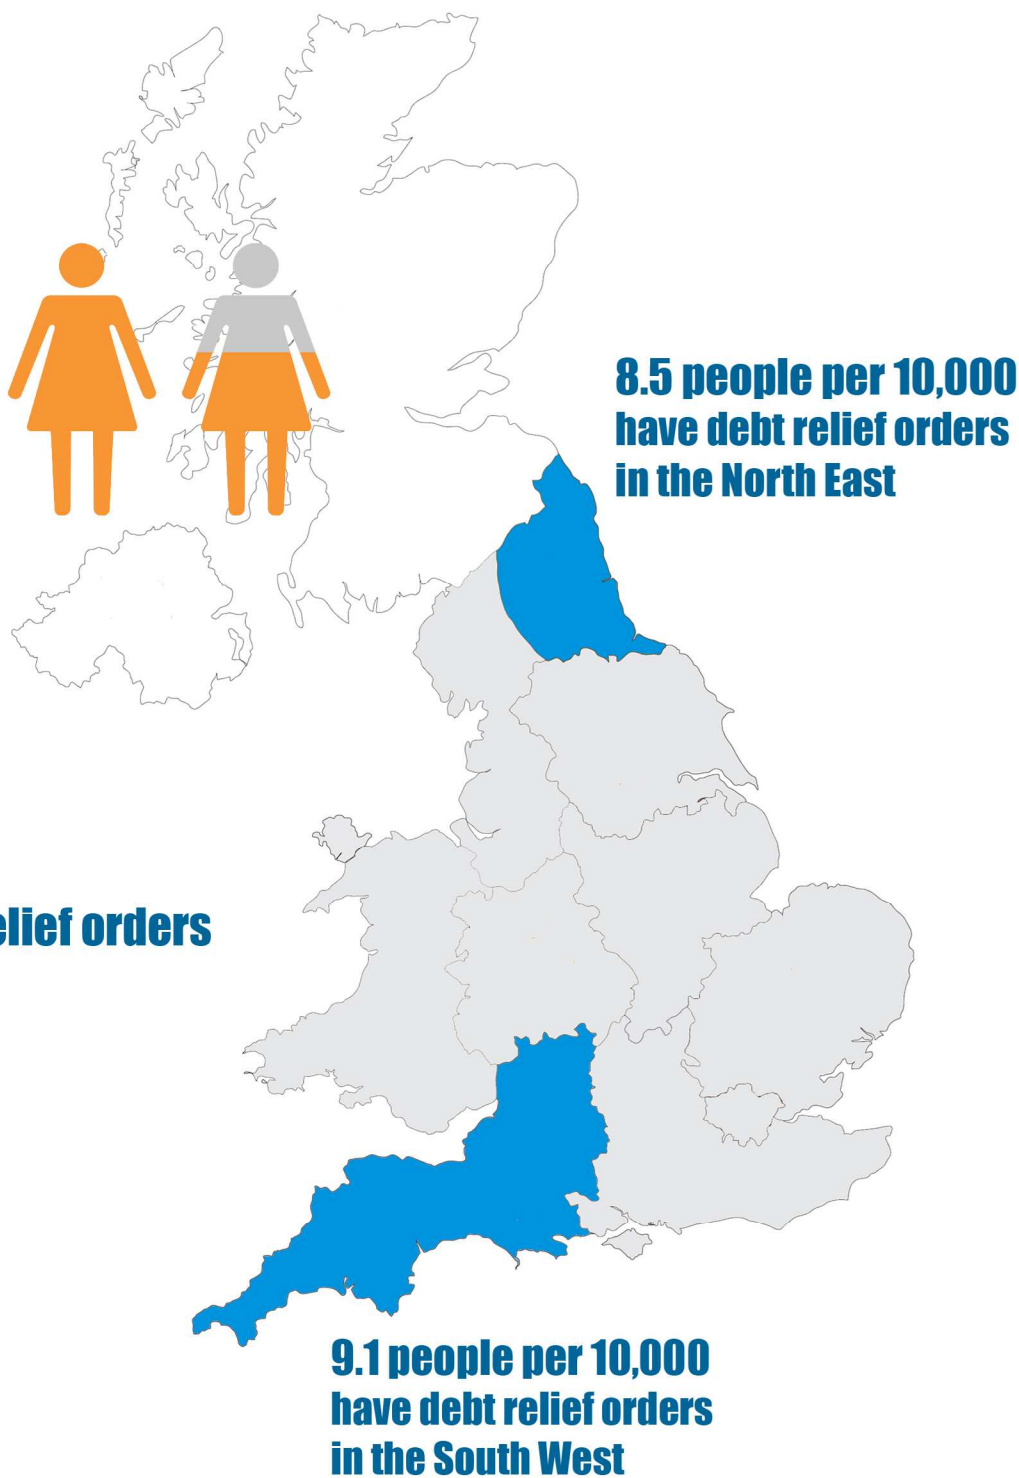

99%

made within

48hrs

7.6 women and 4.7 men, per 10,000 people have debt relief orders

www.gov.uk/insolvency-service

Search: alternative to bankruptcy