Since September 2009 all calls to speaking clocks have been barred by default. For users who request additional calling features such as international calls, they have access to speaking clock.

I have run a report and no calls have been made to the speaking clock.