

Gambling Tax Reform update 3 - September 2014

Existing Customers

From the end of September, HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) is writing to existing customers of General Betting Duty (GBD), Pool Betting Duty (PBD) and Remote Gaming Duty (RGD) to ask for information about their businesses. This is so that HMRC can move the records of existing customers onto the new IT system before the rules change for these taxes on 1 December 2014.

Customers receiving a letter should complete the form enclosed and return it by 14 November 2014 to:

Gambling Duties Team
National Registration Unit (GTR)
Portcullis House
21, India Street
Glasgow
G2 4PZ

Anyone who needs an additional form or who believes they should have received a letter and form but hasn't, should contact NRUBetting&Gaming@hmrc.gsi.gov.uk

Registration for new customers (that is those who will become liable for these taxes for the first time as result of the changes) will open shortly.

For further information go to:

New rules for some Gambling Duties from 1 December 2014