Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email of 8 August requesting the following information:

Could you please provide a copy of all court listings over the past 5 years under military law.

Please provide:-

Venue,

Date/time

Court (Summary Appeal Court, Court Martial, Court Martial Appeal Court, SCC)

Hearing Type (i.e. preliminary, sentencing leave to appeal)

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and I can confirm that some information in scope of your request is held. However, the Department does not hold information for the past five years as requested. Please find attached the information you have requested from 28 May 2012 to 12 September 2014. You may also wish to be aware that future court listings are published on the internet and can be accessed using the following link:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/military-court-centres-court-listings>

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Deputy Chief Information Officer, 2nd Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.gov.uk>.

Yours sincerely,

Army Secretariat
