Dear Sir/Madam,

I feel compelled to write to you to express my concerns about the possibility of having legislation that governs the relationship between me and my pub company that could ultimately damage my business.

I have recently taken over the running of The [redacted] in partnership with Admiral Taverns.

I am a relatively new tenant and feel that without the support of both Admiral Taverns and my BSM [redacted] I would not have been able to build a successful business. I am fully aware of the differences between a tied and untied model but the tied model is more valuable to me with the level of support I receive.

I work in an industry that is already heavily regulated and I don't see the need for any additional red tape.

I'm not unhappy with the current situation and see no need to change it. Ultimately this review seems to me to be a waste of taxpayers money and the government already taxes my business enough.

I feel strongly about this and the potential threat to my business. I hope you take my views into account in your review.

Yours Sincerely.

Tenant & Licensee.
