Dear Sirs/Madam,

My name is _____ and i am in the lucky position of being a multiple tenant with both Punch Taverns and St Austell brewery. I am also in the lucky position in where my Buisness Development Managers from both pub-companys are and have been nothing but an asset to my business. In fact if it wasnt for there help and support i would have no business. So you can imagine my dismay when i found out that Mr Vince Cable MP is pushing for more government regulation which is neither needed or desirable.

I still recall the change in the licensing act 2003 as a good example of government interference and the additional cost burden the industry now bears as a result of your so-called reforms.

Please recognise the fact that the voluntary code of practice is already working and the relationship between pub company and tenant has never been better in my veiw (and i have over 20 years experiance within the industry). Please let us get on with our jobs in what is an already difficult period for all concerned.

Yours Sincerely,
Licensee.
