To The Rt Hon Dr Vince Cable,

With regards to your new proposal to help struggling pubs to get a fair deal, upon first viewing, appears admirable. However, as an individual who is hoping to make living as a 'start-up' business, I feel that the expertise and financial support that organisations such as Punch provide is invaluable.

Punch's Business Development Manager, has been there from inception to the present day to assist in any way he can. When we initially accepted the contract on the pub, Punch made it clear that we were the ones that they wanted to represent the pub, but unfortunately, the financial stipulations were beyond our means.

and Punch did everything within their power to ensure that the deal was met. This meant that we paid only 10% of the initial required investment, with the remainder paid over a arranged period. This also means that a small business like ourselves were able to operate at maximum capacity from the outset and didn't have the initial financial worries of many other companies in our situation.

Kind regards
