Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Treasury Solicitor's Department ("the Department"):

Can you confirm whether you have accepted a kin claim?

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division ("the Division") under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Division holds all the information that you have requested.

I have withheld the information as to whether we have accepted a kin claim as it is exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the Act. This information is reasonably accessible to you by other means (see unclaimed estates list at: <http://www.gov.uk/government/statistical-data-sets/unclaimed-estates-list>). The list is updated each working day and only contains estates which are claimable and solvent. This exemption confers absolute exemption from the requirement to provide information pursuant to section 1(1) (b) of the Act.

The Division is not holding any further information in relation to your request.
