Policy Update

ECO 1.1

- Following the ECO 1.1 changes coming into force, we have updated our guidance and published this

ECO 1.2 Consultation response

- Initial response sent to DECC 11th March outlining our understanding of those changes and where possible details how we expect to administer ECO if the proposals become law
- Further response sent to DECC 16th April in the form of a letter giving our general views on the consultation followed by our response to specific questions in our capacity as ECO administrator

ECO 1.2

- Will need to consider what items of guidance need amending following the laying of the revised order.
- We will need input on forming our guidance during the summer.
- Draft guidance and consultation as soon as possible.
