FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 - REQUEST REF: 0714-14

Thank you for your email of 22/07/2014 asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You asked:

I would like to make a FOI request for any records which the Government holds relating to weather conditions in Diego Garcia for the month of June 2014.

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you requested. Following a search of our paper and electronic records, I can confirm that the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) does hold information relevant to your request.

The information held is a weather record sent by our representatives in Diego Garcia. The recorded dates are 01/06/14 to 15/07/14. Please find this correspondence attached.

In keeping with the spirit and effect of the Freedom of Information Act, all information is assumed to be releasable to the public unless it is exempt. The information we have supplied to you may now be published on our website together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context.

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the FCO will have been produced by government officials and will be protected by Crown Copyright. You can find details on the arrangement for re-using Crown Copyright information on the TNA website.

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non-Crown Copyright) information.

Yours sincerely,

Assistant Desk Officer
Falklands and Southern Oceans Department

We keep and use information in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. We may release this personal information to other UK government departments and public authorities.
