(1) The figures quoted have been derived from management information from the Home Office databases and are therefore provisional and subject to change. This information has not been quality assured under National Statistics protocols.

(2) An Foreign National Offender (FNO) is defined as an individual with a criminal case (includes deportations being pursued under Section 32 of the UK Borders Act 2007), on the Home Office's Case Information Database, and may include individuals with asylum cases.

(3) Figures relate to main applicants only.

(4) Figures relate to individuals who lodged appeals against deportation between January 2010 and December 2013. Appeal outcomes may have been decided in the same or subsequent years. Some outcomes may be awaiting decision and figures may change as outcomes are determined.

(5) Appeals allowed include those determined in both the Lower and Upper Tiers, and include appeals allowed on Human Rights, asylum and non-asylum grounds. They exclude Secretary of State reconsideration and costs awarded outcomes.

(6) Concluded appeals data is cohort based on the appeal lodged data and they are subject to change for 2012 and 2013 appeal conclusions.

(7) Appeals Allowed: FNOs who were allowed by the courts includes allowed on asylum grounds, allowed under HR with or without other grounds and other grounds such as EEA regulations; Appeals Allowed – Other: FNOs who were allowed by the courts for Home Office to reconsider the decision or cost awarded. Dismissed: FNOs who were dismissed by the courts where Asylum and HR Certification is upheld, dismissed under Immigration Rules and dismissed with No Costs Awarded; Other: includes Abandoned, Out Of Time, Refused, Secretary of State Successful, Struck Out, Withdrawn by Appellant and Withdrawn by UKBA.

(8) Figures rounded to the nearest 5 (- = 0, * = 1 or 2) and may not sum to the totals shown because of independent rounding.
