Dear

Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your e-mail dated 24 October requesting information under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

You asked for:

I would like to request information on the number of drivers within Greater Manchester, London and Birmingham who have 12 or more points on their licence.

While DVLA holds this information, section 21 of the FOIA exempts DVLA from providing information which is reasonably accessible to you by other means. Statistics on the number of drivers with points on their licence is routinely published on the GOV.UK website.

The information can be Previewed or Downloaded by following the link:

<http://data.gov.uk/dataset/driving-licence-data>

The tab DRL0132 at the bottom of the spreadsheet provides the number of driving licence holders with penalty points by postal area/district. This information reflects the position as at March 2014 and is the most recent date available (please see accompanying notes to the spreadsheet for more information).

The information which follows concerns the procedures for making any complaint you might have about the reply. Please quote the reference number of this letter in any future communications about it.

Yours sincerely

Robert Toft
Head of Data Sharing Policy & Freedom of Information Team

Your right to complain to DVLA and the Information Commissioner

If you are not happy with the reply to your request, you can ask DVLA to re-consider the response you received by writing (within two calendar months of receiving this response) to either foi@dvla.gsi.gov.uk or DVLA Freedom of Information Team, DSPG/FOI, D16, DVLA, Swansea SA6 7JL.

DVLA will acknowledge and consider your request, re-visiting the response provided. This is known as an Internal Review and will be considered by a staff member not involved with the original reply.
