

Transformation Challenge Award 2015-16 - Successful Bids for Capital Receipt Flexibility only

Authority	Project Title	Project Summary	Capital Receipt Flexibility	Partner Names
Birmingham City Council	imagining community library services: a pathway for survival.	Flexibly utilise capital receipts in more innovative ways to assist the future delivery of community library services. Using capital more flexibly will allow investment in working with local partners, such as colleges and community groups and also enabling investment in Information Technology and self-service equipment for customers.	£400,000	South and City College Birmingham West Heath Community Organisation
North Somerset Council	North Somerset Council and North Somerset Clinical Commissioning Group integration project	To create a new and integrated operating model for North Somerset Council and North Somerset Clinical Commissioning Groups health and social care commissioned services that enables North Somerset Council and North Somerset Clinical Commissioning Group to improve health and social care outcomes for the communities of North Somerset, focusing on reducing the need for residential care, nursing care and unplanned hospital admissions.	£500,000	North Somerset Clinical Commissioning Group New Devon Clinical Commissioning Group