 - (1) possesses a Policing Qualification as defined by the chief officer after consultation with the local policing body;

(d) All members will move to pay point 2 after 12 months at pay point 1, and progression will continue to be at a rate of one pay point per 12 months of service thereafter.

In the determination under regulation 24 of the Police Regulations 2003 (Annex F – Pay), in Part 2, below the section with the heading ‘TRANSITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS IN RELATION TO INTRODUCTION OF NEW CONSTABLES’ PAY SCALE’, there shall be inserted the following:

(for those in service before 1 April 2013)

The constables’ pay scale was reduced by 3 points over two years from 1 April 2014. When a pay point is removed a member will not automatically move to the next highest pay point but will move instead in line with their incremental date and the assimilation procedure detailed below.

ANNEX F (Part 2) –

Regulation 24

Pay point	With effect from 1 September 2013	With effect from 1 April 2014	With effect from 1 September 2014	With effect from 1 April 2015
On commencing service	£23,493	£23,493	£23,727	£23,727

10	£36,885(b)	£36,885(b)	£37,254 (b)	£37,254 (b)

- (a) All members move to this salary point on completion of two years' service as a constable.
- (b) Members on this point who are in receipt of competence related threshold payment will continue to receive the payment in accordance with Regulation 24, Annex F, Part 9A
- (c) When this pay point is removed on 1 April 2014, members on this point will move in line with their incremental date and the assimilation procedure detailed below.

CONSTABLES' PAY ASSIMILATION PROCEDURE WITH EFFECT FROM 1 APRIL 2014

- a) To counteract the anomalies which would have arisen from assimilation to the above new pay scale, implemented with effect from 1 April 2014, the incremental dates of members listed below will, for pay purposes only, change where indicated in the following table:

Members start date	Incremental date
Pre- 1 October 2004 starters:	no change
Starters between 2 October 2004 and 31 December 2004:	change to 1 October from 2015
Starters between 1 January 2005 and 30 September 2005:	no change to incremental date until 1 October 2015. Members then move to pay point 9 ¹ (as at 1 September 2013)
Starters between 2 October 2005 and 31 December 2005:	change to 1 October from 2015
Starters between 1 January 2006 and 31 March 2006:	no change to incremental date until 1 October 2015. Members then move to pay point 8 ¹ (as at 1 September 2013)
Starters between 1 April 2006 and 30 September 2006:	change to 1 October from 2015
Starters between 2 October 2006 and 31 December 2006:	change to 1 October from 2015
Starters between 1 January 2007 and 31 March 2007:	no change to incremental date until 1 October 2015. Members then move to pay point 8 ¹ (as at 1 September 2013)

¹ This means that those who joined between 1 January and 30 September 2005 will move twice in 2015: firstly on their current incremental date and again on 1 October, which will become their new incremental date. This also applies to members who joined between 1 January and 31 March 2006 and 1 January and 31 March 2007.

Starters between 1 April 2007
and 30 September 2007:

change to 1 October from 2015

Post- 1 October 2007 starters

no change

- b) There will be no change to incremental dates for any member with a 1st October start date (of any year).
- c) The changes to incremental dates listed above in the table at paragraph a) will need to remain in place until members reach the top of the constables' scale, in order to avoid yet further anomalies arising.
- d) All other members move on to the next point in the scale in accordance with their normal incremental dates.
- e) Members who were eligible to progress to pay point 3 during the suspension of incremental progression could not accrue reckonable service on that pay point during the suspension period. Consequently, these members will move to pay point 4 on 1 April 2015 and this will be their new incremental date.

SERGEANTS' PAY

In the determination under regulation 24 of the Police Regulations 2003 (Annex F – Pay), in Part 3, below the section entitled ‘SERGEANTS’ PAY with effect from 1 April 2014 there shall be inserted the following:

- (a) Entry point for members promoted from constable.
- (b) Members on this point who are in receipt of competence related threshold payment will continue to receive the payment in accordance with Regulation 24, Annex F, Part 9A’

Sergeants’ Pay - Assimilation Procedure with effect from 1 April 2014

1. Pay point 0 of the current sergeants’ pay scale will be removed from 1 April 2014 to ensure that sergeants are always paid more than constables, consistent with the greater responsibilities of the job.
2. Sergeants on pay point 0 will move to pay point 1 of the pay scale on 1 April 2014.
3. Those sergeants who move from pay point 0 to pay point 1 on 1 April 2014 will have a new incremental date of 1 April. They will therefore move to pay point 2 on 1 April 2015.
4. Incremental progression was suspended for two-years from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014 as at Regulation 24, Annex F, Part 1A. Those sergeants frozen at points 1, 2 or 3 during the suspension of incremental progression do not change incremental dates.

INSPECTORS' PAY
(London salaries in brackets)

In the determination under regulation 24 of the Police Regulations 2003 (Annex F – Pay), in Part 4, below the section entitled ‘INSPECTORS’ PAY with effect from 1 September 2010 and 1 September 2013’ there shall be inserted the following:

INSPECTORS’ PAY with effect from 1st September 2013 and 1st September 2014

Pay point	With effect from 1 September 2013	With effect from 1 September 2014
0	£47,256 (£49,329)	£47,730 (£49,821)

(a) Members on this point who are in receipt of competence related threshold payment will continue to receive the payment in accordance with Regulation 24, Annex F, Part 9A.

Incremental progression was suspended for two-years from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014 as at Regulation 24, Annex F, Part 1A. On resumption of incremental progression on 1 April 2014:

- (1) Incremental progression will follow upon completion of twelve months reckonable service on each pay point (usually the anniversary of a member’s promotion).
- (2) Members promoted to the rank of Inspector during the suspension of incremental progression will have a new incremental date of 1 April.

CHIEF INSPECTORS' PAY

(London salaries in brackets)

In the determination under regulation 24 of the Police Regulations 2003 (Annex F – Pay), in Part 5, below the section entitled ‘CHIEF INSPECTORS’ PAY with effect from 1 September 2010 and 1 September 2013 (including the section entitled ‘Chief Inspectors in post at August 1994), there shall be inserted the following:

SUPERINTENDENTS' PAY

In the determination under regulation 24 of the Police Regulations 2003 (Annex F – Pay), in Part 6(i), below the section entitled ‘SUPERINTENDENTS’ PAY for those holding the rank of Superintendent on or after 1 September 2013 ’ there shall be inserted the following:

SUPERINTENDENTS’ PAY with effect from 1st September 2014

Pay point	Five point pay scale in place as at 1 September 2013	Five point pay scale, with effect from 1 September 2014	New four point pay scale with effect from 1 April 2014	New four point pay scale, with effect from 1 September 2014
1	£62,922	£63,552	£62,922	£63,552
2	£65,517	£66,171	£66,210	£66,873
3	£68,112	£68,793	£69,669	£70,365
4	£70,713	£71,421	£74,322	£75,066
5	£73,311	£74,043

Incremental progression was suspended for two-years from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014 under a determination made under Regulation 24 and inserted in Annex F – Part 6 (i) under the heading ‘Incremental Progression. Members could not accrue reckonable service for the purposes of pay during the suspension period. The meaning of ‘reckonable service’ for the purposes of pay is set out under Police Regulations 2003.

Transition to the new pay scale will take place as follows:

1) Superintendents promoted on or after 1 April 2014

Members promoted either temporarily or substantively to the rank of Superintendent on or after 1 April 2014 will join the new four point pay scale on the date of their promotion. Incremental progression will follow upon completion of twelve months’ reckonable service on each pay point (usually the anniversary of a member’s promotion).

2) Superintendents promoted on or before 31 March 2014

Members promoted either temporarily or substantively to the rank of Superintendent on or before 31 March 2014 will remain on the five point pay scale. They will move to pay point 4 of the new four point pay scale (top of scale) no later than the point at which their increment becomes payable during the twelve month period beginning on 1 April 2016 and ending on 31 March 2017.

The following assimilation arrangements will apply to their transition to the new four point pay scale:

a) Superintendents on pay points 1 to 4 of the five point pay scale at 1 April 2014

- i. Members will progress to the next point on the five point pay scale upon completion of twelve months' reckonable service at a pay point. For example, a member who attained pay point 3 of the existing pay scale on 1 September 2011 will move to pay point 4 of the same scale on 1 September 2014 and pay point 5 on 1 September 2015. The member will then move to pay point 4 of the new scale (top of scale) on 1 September 2016.
- ii. Members who attained pay point 4 of the five point pay scale prior to the commencement of the freeze on incremental progression will move to pay point 5 of the same scale on completion of twelve months reckonable service at that pay point. Upon completion of twelve months reckonable service on pay point 5, these members will move to pay point 4 of the new scale (top of scale). For example, a member who attained pay point 4 of the five point scale on 1 May 2011 will progress to pay point 5 of the same scale on 1 May 2014 and pay point 4 of the new scale on 1 May 2015.
- iii. All members promoted either temporarily or substantively to the rank of Superintendent between 1 April 2012 and 31 March 2014 (inclusive) will move to pay point 2 on 1 April 2015, upon completion of twelve months reckonable service. With effect from 1 April 2015, the date for incremental progression for these officers in subsequent years will become 1 April.
- iv. All members who remain on the five point pay scale will, regardless of their length of service in the rank, transfer to pay point 4 of the new pay scale (top of scale) no later than the date upon which their increment becomes payable during the twelve month period from 1 April 2016. As a result of this, some anomalies will arise whereby some members will by-pass one or more of the intermediate pay points of both the five point and the new four point pay scales. For example, a member promoted on 1 April 2012 will progress to pay point 2 of the five point scale on 1 April 2015 and pay point 4 of the new scale (top of scale) on 1 April 2016.

b) Superintendents currently on pay point 5 of the five point scale

- i. Members will progress to pay point 4 of the new pay scale (top of scale) on 1 April 2014, provided they have already completed twelve months reckonable service at their current pay point.
- ii. Members who, on 1 April 2014, have yet to complete twelve months reckonable service at their current pay point will progress to pay point 4 of the new scale (top of scale) once they have done so. For example, a member who attained pay point 5 of the five point pay scale on 1 September 2011 will progress to pay point 4 of the new pay scale (top of scale) on 1 September 2014.

It is recognised that the introduction of this new pay scale and the assimilation procedure outlined above will result in some Superintendents being overtaken by other officers with shorter service in the rank. Such anomalies will be particularly apparent although time limited, for those members who were promoted to the rank during the suspension of incremental progression.

Temporary service in a higher rank which qualifies as reckonable service for the purposes of pay should be taken into account when determining pay progression.

Incremental Progression

Incremental progression through the pay scale will be dependent upon an officer's performance having been graded as either 'satisfactory' or above in the relevant PDR. In the absence of a PDR, an officer's performance will be assumed to have been 'satisfactory'.

Note:

Performance-related bonus payments and the payment of double increments were suspended for all Superintending ranks for a two year period commencing 1 April 2012 and are abolished with effect from 1 April 2014.

CHIEF SUPERINTENDENTS' PAY

In the determination made under regulation 24 of the Police Regulations 2003 (Annex F – Pay), in Part 7, below the section entitled ‘CHIEF SUPERINTENDENTS’ PAY for those holding the rank of Chief Superintendent on or after 1 September 2013’ there shall be inserted the following:

CHIEF SUPERINTENDENTS’ PAY with effect from 1 April 2014 and 1 September 2014

Pay point	Old pay scale, as at 1 September 2013	New pay scale, with effect from 1 April 2014	With effect from 1 September 2014
1.	£75,138	£77,988	£78,768
2.	£77,274	£80,628	£81,435
3.	£79,422	£82,272	£83,094

Incremental progression was suspended for two-years from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014 under a determination made under Regulation 24 and inserted in Annex F – Part 6 (ii) under the heading ‘Incremental Progression. Members could not accrue reckonable service for the purposes of pay during the suspension period. The meaning of ‘reckonable service’ for the purposes of pay is set out under Police Regulations 2003.

Transition to the new pay scale will take place as follows:

Chief Superintendents promoted on or before 31 March 2014

Chief Superintendents promoted to the rank either temporarily or substantively on or before 31 March 2014 will move to the new pay scale on 1 April 2014 at their current pay point. The following assimilation arrangements will apply:

- i. Those members who have not already attained pay point 3 (top of scale) by 31 March 2014 will adopt a new incremental progression date of 1 April with effect from 1 April 2014, regardless of their date of promotion to the rank. This means that some members will spend longer than twelve months on their current pay point. For example, if a member was due to move from pay point 2 to pay point 3 on 5 April 2014, that member will receive an initial increase in pay on 1 April 2014 due to the introduction of the new pay scale, but will not then progress to pay point 3 until 1 April 2015.
- ii. For the avoidance of doubt, if, by virtue of having completed twelve months’ reckonable service on their current pay point, a member’s next increment falls due on 1 April 2014, that member will progress to the next pay point of the new scale on this date. This will prevent such members experiencing the equivalent of an additional twelve months’ ‘freeze’ on incremental progression.

Temporary service in a higher rank which qualifies as reckonable service for the purposes of pay should be taken into account when determining pay progression.

Incremental Progression

Incremental progression through the pay scale will be dependent upon an officer's performance having been graded as either 'satisfactory' or above in the relevant PDR. In the absence of a PDR, an officer's performance will be assumed to have been 'satisfactory'.

Note:

Performance-related bonus payments and the payment of double increments were suspended for all Superintending ranks for a two year period commencing 1 April 2012 and are abolished with effect from 1 April 2014. Post-Related Allowances remained payable to eligible Chief Superintendents throughout the suspension of incremental progression and will also cease to be paid with effect from 1 April 2014, as at Annex U (9A) made under regulation 34 of, and Schedule 2 to, the Police Regulations 2003). The abolition of PRAs, PRBs, and double increments shall take effect at the same time as the new pay scales are introduced with effect from 1 April 2014.

In the determination under regulation 24 of the Police Regulations 2003 (Annex F – Pay), in Part 8 below ‘Pay Structure with effect from 1 September 2013’ there shall be inserted the following:
