Legal Aid Committal Form

This form should be completed and signed at the Mode of Trial hearing or any other hearing where the venue is known for all Either Way cases that are directed to the Crown Court by the magistrates or for 3rd strike burglary/drug offences. This form must not be completed where the defendant elects Crown Court trial (either way offences).

The form must be submitted to the LAA along with the claim for payment and a copy of the form must be provided to the Instructed Advocate. Where the defendant is unrepresented, the provider is able to obtain a memorandum of conviction from the court. There is a fee payable, and the LAA will pay this as a disbursement.
