I am writing to you in response to your freedom of information request you submitted on the 2nd of June 2014 asking:

Total number of third party mobile applications purchased/implemented by your organisation broken down over the last three years – please include the name of the application and detail on the cost and if possible the estimated number of users

I can confirm that the Highways Agency has not spent any money on third party mobile applications.

If you are unhappy with the way we have handled your request you may ask for an internal review. Our internal review process is available at:
