Dear [REDACTED]

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

Thank you for your FOI question received by email on 14 April, in which you ask:

“Please provide a monthly breakdown of the number of e-petitions rejected by the department since the government's official e-petitions website was established.”

I am writing to tell you that the Office of the Advocate General has had no e-petitions rejected since the Government's official e-petitions website was established.

The Office of the Advocate General is the UK Government's Scottish Legal Team and provides advice to UK Government Departments, represents the UK Government in Courts and Tribunals in Scotland and supports the Advocate General as a UK Law Officer. Should you wish further information on our role please go to our website at:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/office-of-the-advocate-general-for-scotland>

If you are dissatisfied with the treatment of your request, you can ask OAG to conduct an internal review of its decision. The internal review will be conducted by someone other than the person who took the initial decision. Requests for internal review should be addressed to the Information Officer, Office of the Solicitor to the Advocate General, Victoria Quay, Edinburgh, EH6 6QQ.

If you remain dissatisfied with how your request has been handled by OAG following its internal review, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office. Details of the complaints procedure can be found here - http://www.ico.gov.uk/complaints/freedom\_of\_information.aspx or by writing to Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely
