Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email of 22 July 2014 requesting the following information:

How many visits to the Dstl home page on the gov.uk website have been recorded for each month since 1 January 2014?

We are treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the Ministry of Defence, and we can confirm that all the information in scope of your request is held and is supplied in the table below.

Between January and June 2014, Dstl had a "holding" page on the Gov.uk website. From 1st July Dstl went live.

January	377	301
February	324	255
March	232	191
April	205	185
May	259	203
June	288	263
July to and including 23 July	8575	5799

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st

Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.gov.uk>.

Yours sincerely
