Dear Phil,

Publication of documentation

Further to your letter dated 29 September, we confirm that we are happy for the documentation contained in Folder 2.2 Further Information of the Commission's datasite being published as part of the Commission's consultation documentation.

We would like to include the following introductory note to be published alongside the documentation:

"In line with Heathrow's policy on transparency towards our proposals, we published our entire submission and associated environmental assessments in May and June of this year. The documents listed out below constitute supplementary information requested by the Commission to assist them in undertaking their appraisals."
