Subject: Armenian media reports on UK parliament and genocide recognition [redacted]

A curious report in one of the papers here today that 11 of 18 N Ireland MPs and 37 of 59 Scottish MPs in the UK Parliament now recognised the genocide and that this was going to put HMG under pressure. No indication of what these figures relate to. I wonder if it was just going back to the last EDM and isn't a new story at all; which is entirely possible. Don't see how it can relate to Andrew Dismore's PMB unless he's somehow got a lot more supporters lined up. But may be a heads up that the BAAPG are up to something post- Robertson.
