Dear [REDACTED]

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000. MINISTRY OF DEFENCE POLICE: INTERPRETERS.

I acknowledge receipt of your e-mail of 4 November 2014, which we are treating as request for information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA 2000).

In your e-mail of 4 November, you requested the following information:

“Please can you advise me how much the Ministry of Defence Police spent on interpreters in each of the financial years:

2010/2011
2011/2012
2012/2013
2013/2014
2014/2015

Please include costs as to salary, employers' national insurance, employer pension contributions and accommodation costs. If any other costs have been incurred, such as transport, please include these in your reply”.

A search for information has now been completed and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held:

LET209.14

Please can you advise me how much the Ministry of Defence Police spent on interpreters in each of the financial years:

2010/2011	£338
2011/2012	£734
2012/2013	£72
2013/2014	0
2014/2015	0 (to date)

If you are not satisfied with this response or wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, London SW1A 2HB (email CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate the case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website (<http://www.ico.gov.uk>).

Yours sincerely
