Dear [REDACTED]

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST

Thank you for your FOI question received on 06 June in which you ask for:

- Full details of your organisational structure for your ICT Department, including ICT security, infrastructure, risk, governance and compliance – in addition please include names, job titles and email addresses
- Full details of your top 20 suppliers of ICT services and a brief description of the nature and values of the contracts held by them – in addition please include top 10 suppliers who deal with security of your back office and infrastructure

I can confirm that the Office of the Advocate General (OAG) does not hold the information you have requested. OAG's information technology is provided by the Scottish Government. All requests for information in relation to ICT services run by the Scottish Government should be submitted to them. You can use the link below to go to their FOI site.

<http://www.scotland.gov.uk/About/Information/FOI>

If you are dissatisfied with the treatment of your request, you can ask OAG to conduct an internal review of its decision. The internal review will be conducted by someone other than the person who took the initial decision. Requests for internal review should be addressed to the Information Officer, Office of the Solicitor to the Advocate General, Victoria Quay, Edinburgh, EH6 6QQ.

If you remain dissatisfied with how your request has been handled by OAG following its internal review, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office. Details of the complaints procedure can be found here - http://www.ico.gov.uk/complaints/freedom_of_information.aspx or by writing to Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely
