Section two - Breakdown of Travel Costs

When claiming travel costs the date of travel, destination and reason for travel must be included. If you are travelling to visit your client you must justify why these expenses should be paid when a local provider would not incur them. Travel will be allowed at public transport rates unless justification for private travel is provided. Please provide copies of all tickets or receipts for public transport costs incurred over £20.00. Please see the LGFS Guidance for more information.
