Dear

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION: DETAILS OF COMMUNICATIONS AND MEETINGS
HELD BY DEFRA ABOUT COMMERCIAL INTERESTS IN THE RESEARCH
DEVELOPMENT AND MARKETING OF BLIGHT-RESISTANT POTATOES BY THE SAINSBURY LABORATORY

Thank you for your request for information about all communications and meetings about commercial interests in the research, development and marketing of blight-resistant potatoes by the Sainsbury Laboratory, including the date Defra became aware of the commercial interest. We received this on 30 April 2014. As you know, we have handled your request under the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIRs).

I enclose a copy of the information you requested. This is an extract from a table which shows the Sainsbury Laboratory's links with other organisations in relation to this trial. The document which contained this table was sent to Defra in February 2013.

In keeping with the spirit and effect of the EIRs, and in keeping with the government's Transparency Agenda, all information is assumed to be releasable to the public unless exempt. Therefore, the information released to you will now be published on www.gov.uk together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. Please note that this will not include your personal data.

I attach Annex A, which explains the copyright that applies to the information being released to you.

I also attach Annex B giving contact details should you be unhappy with the service you have received.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me.

Yours sincerely

Copyright

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by copyright. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including for private study and non-commercial research, and for any other purpose authorised by an exception in current copyright law. Documents (except photographs or logos) can be also used in the UK without requiring permission for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder.

Most documents produced by Defra will be protected by Crown Copyright. Most Crown copyright information can be re-used under the Open Government Licence. For information about the OGL and about re-using Crown Copyright information please see The National Archives website.

Copyright in other documents may rest with a third party. For information about obtaining permission from a third party see the Intellectual Property Office's website.

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request you may make a complaint or appeal against our decision under section 17(7) of the FOIA or under regulation 18 of the EIRs, as applicable, within 40 working days of the date of this letter. Please write to Mike Kaye, Head of Information Standards, Area 4D, Nobel House, 17 Smith Square, London, SW1P 3JR (email: requestforinfo@defra.gsi.gov.uk) and he will arrange for an internal review of your case. Details of Defra's complaints procedure are on our website.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, section 50 of the FOIA and regulation 18 of the EIRs gives you the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Please note that generally the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted Defra's own complaints procedure. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
