
INFORMATION RELEASED UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

Information released title	Investors in People status of the Civil Nuclear Constabulary
Original request	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Can you confirm whether the Civil Nuclear Constabulary has full accreditation with Investors in People as of 1st November 2013? 2. If the Civil Nuclear Constabulary is not accredited with Investors in People, when did the disassociation take place? 3. What was the reason for the disassociation? 4. If the Civil Nuclear Constabulary no longer has valid accreditation with Investors in People, can they still claim to be?
Date of release	25/11/2013
Requester type	Individual

Information released:

1. I can confirm that the Civil Nuclear Constabulary has full Investors in People accreditation as of 1st November 2013.
2. N/A, as the organisation in question is currently in possession of the Investors in People award.
3. N/A, as the organisation in question is currently in possession of the Investors in People award.
4. I can confirm that no organisation can claim to be Investors in People accredited if they do not hold the award. However, this is not the case for the Civil Nuclear Constabulary because, as explained above, it is currently in possession of the Investors in People award.