Information released:

I can confirm that the UK Commission for Employment and Skills does hold this information however it is exempt from releasing it under the Act due to Exemption 40(2) being engaged.

Exemption 40(2): Information is exempt information if disclosure would breach one of the data protection principles.

The reason that this exemption is engaged is due to this information consisting of personal information. Release to the general public would be likely to breach one of the Data Protection Act principles. Our organisation does not publish/release personal information of staff other than the Executive Leadership Team – which details can be found on our website: <http://www.ukces.org.uk/data/staff>.

If you would like to find out more about working with the UK Commission for Employment and Skills, please visit: <http://www.ukces.org.uk/work-with-us/tenders>.

The UK Commission takes its responsibility towards the Freedom of Information Act very seriously and always aims to be as open and transparent as possible. To that effect, we act within the spirit of the Act and routinely publish information on our website to support this.
