The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.

Is publication of an emergency inspection report recommended?

Inspectors please note that a report will only be published on Ofsted's website at the request of the Department for Education, where the matters that caused the emergency inspection to take place have foundation, and where inspectors find that national minimum standards are not met.

Please indicate to the Department for Education below whether publication of a report is advised. (Please delete text in italics.)
