

Survey for pupils at an independent school about education in their school

Picture Communication Symbols version

---

Ofsted asks for children's and young people's views every year. We want as many children and young people as possible to complete the questionnaire. We have developed this version using Picture Communications Symbols.

The Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (Ofsted) regulates and inspects to achieve excellence in the care of children and young people, and in education and skills for learners of all ages. It regulates and inspects childcare and children's social care, and inspects the Children and Family Court Advisory Support Service (Cafcass), schools, colleges, initial teacher training, work-based learning and skills training, adult and community learning, and education and training in prisons and other secure establishments. It assesses council children's services, and inspects services for looked after children, safeguarding and child protection.

How can I contact someone in Ofsted?

You can:

- phone us on 0300 123 1231
- email us on surveys@ofsted.gov.uk.

If you are worried about a child, you should contact the local child protection team that deals with safeguarding and child protection issues, or the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC).

You can find out more about how and when we do our inspections in our inspection framework, which is on our website: www.ofsted.gov.uk.

Symbols

There are not Picture Communications Symbols for every word we require and some children or young people will need help completing this. Below is a list of symbols that may need explaining to children or young people.
