Dear [REDACTED],

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000: MINISTRY OF DEFENCE POLICE: INFORMATION AND DETAILS OF MISUSE OF POLICE INTELLIGENCE AND COMPUTER SYSTEMS.

I acknowledge receipt of your e-mail of 9th October 2014, which we are treating as request for information in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA 2000).

In your email you requested the following information:

‘The individual reasons why officers and staff in the last five years have been disciplined or sacked for misusing intelligence systems or the force's computers, as well as the sanction?

E.G. 2010 Officer Searched out ex-partner's details Written warning

I recently submitted a similar FOI to obtain the figures, but this request is for additional information - on top of the earlier request’.

A search for information has now been completed and I can confirm that information in scope of your request is held.

The individual reasons why officers and staff in the last five years have been disciplined or sacked for misusing intelligence systems or the force's computers, as well as the sanction?

Please see attached table below.

Year	Circumstance	Sanction
2010	Alleged viewing of pornographic material whilst on duty	Final Written Warning
	Alleged misuse of Police National Computer (PNC)	Management Action

If you are not satisfied with this response or wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, London SW1A 2HB (email CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate the case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website (<http://www.ico.gov.uk>).

Yours sincerely

MDP Sec Data Protection and Freedom of Information Office
