I am sending this for  as she is having IT problems. Here is a response to this letter. We are putting some additional paragraphs together as there are a few likely points for future correspondence and will pass these on as soon as possible.

Afternoon all

Could you please provide a line for this PO which we can adapt for the inevitable deluge we are about to receive, following the PM's statement?

█ tells me there may be something ready to go already so does a 3 day deadline sound fair? Monday 2/12 would be ideal as the first case is due 3/12.

Thanks
