Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email of 13 April 2015 requesting a list of suppliers providing outsourced ICT Services to our organisation.

I am treating your correspondence as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

A search for the information has now been completed within the UKHO, and I can confirm that all the information in scope of your request is held. However provision of this information is exempt under section 21 of the FOIA as the information is accessible by other means.

UKHO released details of all its current contracts for ICT services in response to another Freedom of Information (FOI) request. We published the response to that FOI request on the GOV.UK website on 26 March 2015. The information can be found via this link, then using Ctrl + F to open a search window, and searching for the keyword UKHO.

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact me in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]
