Note for the use of the Information Document

1. The exporter must ensure that, subject to any conditions they may lay down, the Customs authorities of the country of temporary importation are in a position to establish the identity of the goods.
2. The duly completed Information Document (I.D.) must be presented to the Customs authorities whenever the goods are cleared.
 - (a) Temporary exportation
The exporter produces the I.D. in duplicate. Customs certify both copies. Part II and return them to the exporter who sends the original I.D. to the importer who keeps it until the last split re-exportation. The exporter keeps the duplicate I.D.
 - (b) Temporary importation
The importer produces the original I.D. to Customs who certify Part II and return the I.D. to him.
 - (c) Split re-exportation
The re-exporter completes an additional Part III (including Box G) and produces it to Customs together with the original I.D. Customs certify the additional Part III after checking it against the I.D. The re-exporter sends the additional Part III to the re-importer.
 - (d) Split re-importation
The re-importer produces the additional Part III and his copy of the I.D. to Customs for checking against each other.
 - (e) Last split re-exportation
The re-exporter completes Part III of the original I.D. including Box G. Customs certify the original I.D. and return it to the re-exporter who sends it to the re-importer.
 - (f) Last split re-importation
The re-importer produces both copies of the I.D. to Customs.
