

FOI Release
Information released under the Freedom of Information Act

Title: Mineworkers Pension Scheme – asset & liability study

Date of release: 20 September 2016

Information request

The correct details and all information under the F,O,I, act regarding the Mineworkers pension scheme, of the asset & liability study undertaken by Watson & Wyatt concluding a 85% x 15% share in favour of the pensioners including

- (1) The date & details of the asset & liabilities study of the mineworkers pension scheme undertaken by Watson & Wyatt in which they concluded a 85% sharing of any surplus going in favour of the scheme, with the remaining 15% share to the government.
- (2) The logic Watson & Wyatt of that conclusion they came to.
- (3) Why did the government reject the conclusions of their own asset & liabilities study, in detail please,
- (4) Could you provide me with a copy of the Watson & Wyatt study.

Information released

The Department does not hold the information you are seeking. In relation to your question (3) above, the report to which you refer was not produced for the Department and it would not have been for the Department to decide whether to act on its conclusions.