Dear [REDACTED]

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION: Correspondence with Animal Defenders
International concerning the Defra investigation of Peter Jolly's Circus' Winter Quarters

Thank you for your request for the above information, which we received on 29 September 2016. As you know, we have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

I enclose a copy of the following information held by this Department:

- A letter from the Chair of Defra's Circus Licensing Panel to Animal Defender's International (ADI) concerning the outcome of the investigation by Defra into the conditions at the winters quarters of Peter Jolly's Circus.

Some information in the above documents has been redacted under sections 40(2) and 40(3)(a)(i) (Personal information) of the FOIA.

The documents contain personal data, which we have concluded should be withheld under section 40(2) (personal data relating to persons other than the requester; i.e. third parties) and section 40(3)(a)(i) of the FOIA. Section 40(2) and section 40(3)(a)(i) of the FOIA provide that personal data relating to third parties is exempt information if its disclosure would breach any of the data protection principles in the Data Protection Act 1998 (DPA). We consider that disclosure of these personal data is likely to breach the first data protection principle in Schedule 1 to the DPA, which relates to the fair and lawful processing of personal data. Disclosure of this information would not constitute 'fair' processing of the personal data because the information relates to persons who are not in a public facing role and would not reasonably have expected their name to be made public. Therefore, we have concluded that this information is exempt from disclosure under section 40(2) of the FOIA.

The information which is exempt from disclosure is:

- The name of the representative of ADI, where this information is not already publicly known.

Information disclosed in response to this FOI request is releasable to the public. In keeping with the spirit and effect of the FOIA and the government's Transparency Agenda, this letter and the information disclosed to you may be placed on GOV.UK, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context. No information identifying you will be placed on the GOV.UK website.

We attach Annex A, which explains the copyright that applies to the information being released to you.

We also attach Annex B giving contact details should you be unhappy with the service you have received.

If you have any queries about this letter please contact me.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Complaints

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request you may make a complaint or appeal against our decision under section 17(7) of the FOIA or under regulation 18 of the EIRs, as applicable, within 40 working days of the date of this letter. Please write to [REDACTED], Head of Information Rights, Area 4C, Nobel House, 17 Smith Square, London, SW1P 3JR (email: InformationRequests@defra.gsi.gov.uk) and he will arrange for an internal review of your case. Details of Defra's complaints procedure are on our website.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, section 50 of the FOIA and regulation 18 of the EIRs gives you the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Please note that generally the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have first exhausted Defra's own complaints procedure. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
