Here are some Lines on the Policing Plan 2015-16

- The MDP Policing Plan for the coming year sets out how the Force intends to support the Defence Mission, by using police powers to protect key assets and people.
- Though MDP resembles other police forces, the Force is unique in its specialist skills and capabilities, which are focused on the needs of the MOD and the Armed Forces.
- The Plan reflects both a modernised approach to policing and a sensitivity to the changing needs of UK Defence in an uncertain world.

It's on gov.uk, by the way (on the Defence pages).

Do we have any lines on the MDP Policing Plan?

Grateful if you could forward anything up from around the time of its publication.

Thanks,
