

Key to the MDR One Page Assessment Summaries

The MDR Assessment framework

The MDR Assessment Framework is made up of 16 separate Assessment Questions, which are grouped into 6 different areas, known as Components. The first three components together make up the 'Match with UK Priorities Index'. Components four to six collectively make up the 'Organisational Strengths Index'. The different parts of the MDR assessment framework are shown below.

Multilateral agencies were awarded a score between 0.5 and 4 for each of the 16 assessment questions, with scores taking half point values beginning at 0.5 and going up to 4 (i.e. 0.5, 1, 1.5, 2, 2.5, 3, 3.5, 4). Questions were assessed and scored using the labels shown below, chosen to suggest progression of performance.

Assessment Question Scores and Descriptors

Descriptor	Score
Strong	4
Satisfactory +	3.5
Satisfactory	3
Weak +	2.5
Weak	2
Unsatisfactory +	1.5
Unsatisfactory	1 or less

Assessment question scores were averaged together to produce scores for each agency for each of the six components; for its match with UK priorities; and for its organisational strengths. The formula used for calculating these component and index scores is shown within the MDR Assessment Framework diagram below. Unlike the assessment question scores, component and index scores were categorised using a four colour traffic light categorisation. The table below shows the thresholds chosen for each traffic light rating, along with the descriptor used.

Component and Index Scores and Descriptors

Descriptor	Traffic Light	Score
Very Good		3.01 to 4
Good		2.51 to 3.0
Adequate		2.01 to 2.5
Weak		0 to 2.0

DFID Funding Chart

The funding chart included on each summary assessment page shows DFID's latest published multilateral core and bilateral through multilateral Official Development Assistance (ODA) to the organisation, as included in our National Statistics release, 'Statistics on International Development'. This data is based on payments made in each calendar year.

UK Burden Share

This is the UK's latest burden share, and represents our core funding to the agency as a proportion of all of the core funding it received. Depending on the frequency with which we provide funding to the agency, the burden share could relate to a specific year, a biennium or to a particular replenishment. This has been made clear in the text.

Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR)

Assessment Summary: OHCHR is the only United Nations body specifically mandated to promote and protect human rights. It does this by supporting the development of human rights norms and standards, providing advice and building capacity, monitoring human rights situations, supporting integration of human rights into UN activities, and speaking out against violations and abuses. It acts as the Secretariat of the Human Rights Council.

OHCHR's unique mandate fits well with the UK's international objectives, and its convening, monitoring and reporting work can be particularly important in fragile and conflict-affected states. It has a good focus on marginalised and vulnerable groups, and shows evidence of being focused on Leave No-one Behind. However, resourcing constraints and political sensitivities can constrain its capacity and capability, it needs to assess the adequacy of its evaluation coverage, and it needs to further strengthen human resources management, and fraud, risk and assurance processes.

Since the 2013 MAR Update, OHCHR has strengthened its strategic planning and results management, and is taking steps to improve its efficiency and effectiveness.

DFID Funding

UK Engagement: OHCHR is part of the United Nations Secretariat. Oversight of administrative, budgetary and programmatic matters is provided by the UN General Assembly and its relevant subsidiary organs, complemented by informal briefings that the High Commissioner and senior staff hold throughout the year. DFID supports the UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office's active participation in such meetings. Total UK core, extra-budgetary funding to OHCHR in 2014 was £2.5 million (of which £1.6 million is ODA), a burden share of 6.8%. This was complemented by a further £0.9 million spent by DFID bilateral programmes directly.
