Ref. FOI2015/06145

04 August 2015

Dear

Thank you for your email of 9 July 2015 requesting the following information:

"I would be grateful if you could let me know how many Service Family Accommodation properties in the UK do not have a valid, in date, annual Landlord's Gas Safety Inspection certificate at the most recent date for which figures are available"

We do not recognise this as a request for recorded information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

However, you have indicated you wish for this to be answered under the FOI Act.

Under Section 16 of the Act (Advice and Assistance) you may find it helpful to note the answer to your question is below:

As of 27 July 2015 there were 642 occupied properties with an expired LGSI certificate and 991 empty properties that did not have a valid certificate.

Yours sincerely,

DIO Secretariat

If you are not satisfied with this response or you wish to complain about any aspect of the handling of your request, then you should contact DIO Secretariat in the first instance. If informal resolution is not possible and you are still dissatisfied then you may apply for an independent internal review by contacting the Information Rights Compliance team, 1st Floor, MOD Main Building, Whitehall, SW1A 2HB (e-mail CIO-FOI-IR@mod.uk). Please note that any request for an internal review must be made within 40 working days of the date on which the attempt to reach informal resolution has come to an end.

If you remain dissatisfied following an internal review, you may take your complaint to the Information Commissioner under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act. Please note that the Information Commissioner will not investigate your case until the MOD internal review process has been completed. Further details of the role and powers of the Information Commissioner can be found on the Commissioner's website, <http://www.ico.org.uk>.
