Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Government Legal Department (“the Department”):

We are attempting to locate this gentleman's next of kin, but it is effectively impossible to do so without seeing his name written in the correct Chinese characters. His name as it appears on the BV list is an outdated transliteration that could correspond to a large number of Chinese names. Do you hold or know of the existence of documentation showing this? If so, please could you provide this.

In addition, his place of birth is described as "Guangdong Province, China". This is an enormous area. Do you hold or know of the existence of documentation showing a more precise place of birth? If so, please could you provide this.

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division (“the Division”) under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Division does not hold the information that you have requested.
