Freedom of Information Act 2000 Request

You asked for the following information from the Treasury Solicitor's Department ("the Department"):

Could you inform us exactly why the place of death (and the birth details) have been withheld from us?

Your request will be dealt with by the Bona Vacantia Division ("the Division") under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The Division holds all the information that you have requested.

The Division holds information relating to the place of the death and the birth details of the deceased. I have withheld the above information as it is exempt from disclosure under section 21 of the Act. This information is reasonably accessible to you by other means (see the unclaimed estates list at: <http://www.gov.uk/government/statistical-data-sets/unclaimed-estates-list>). This exemption confers absolute exemption from the requirement to provide information pursuant to section 1(1) (b) of the Act.

The Division does not hold any further information in relation to your request.
