Dear

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 2000 REQUEST REF: 0045-15

Thank you for your email of 19th January asking for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 2000. You asked for:

A breakdown of Government expenditure on the visit to Indonesia by Boris Johnson detailed here; <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/indonesia-visit-by-boris-johnson/indonesia-visit-by-boris-johnson>.

Details of the class of transport used for all flights and train journeys as well as costs. Please also provide me with details of the accommodation used on the trip as well as associated costs.

I am writing to confirm that we have now completed the search for the information which you requested.

I can confirm that the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) does hold information relevant to your request.

I have attached a table detailing the costs to the UK Government of the visit by the Mayor of London, Boris Johnson, to Indonesia on 29-30 November 2014. These costs were covered by UK Trade and Investment (UKTI) in full. The FCO did not incur any expenditure in support of this visit.

Whilst these figures represent the full costs to the Government, they do not represent the full costs of the trip, especially travel and accommodation, which you have specified in your request. You may wish to contact the Greater London Authority for a breakdown of those costs covered by the Mayor of London's office.

In keeping with the spirit and effect of the Freedom of Information Act, all information is assumed to be releasable to the public unless it is exempt. The information we have supplied to you may now be published on our website together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context.

The copies of information being supplied to you continue to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder. Most documents supplied by the FCO will have been produced by government officials and will be protected by Crown Copyright. To re-use Crown Copyright documents please consult the Open Government Licence v3 on the National Archives website.

Information you receive which is not subject to Crown Copyright continues to be protected by the copyright of the person, or organisation, from which the information originated. You must ensure that you gain their permission before reproducing any third party (non-Crown Copyright) information.

I hope you are satisfied with this reply. However, if you wish to make a complaint or if you would like a review of our decision, please write to the FOI and DPA Team, Foreign and Commonwealth Office, Room K4.14, King Charles Street, London, SW1A 2AH. E-mail: foi-dpa.imd@fco.gov.uk. You have 40 working days to do so from the date of this letter.

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint, you may then apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the FCO. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely,

ASEAN Department

We keep and use information in line with the Data Protection Act 1998. We may release this personal information to other UK government departments and public authorities.
